Lincoln Park Resident Walking on Highway North of City When James Lanigan's Auto Struck Him.

NO CHARGES

No Charges Against the Driver, But Case is Held Open — Survivors.

Martin Petersen, 53, of Vincent street, Lincoln Park, died at the Kingston Hospital shortly after 6 o'clock this morning as the result of injuries sustained shortly after 8 o'clock Saturday night, when he was struck by a car driven by James Lanigan, of Albany avenue extension. Petersen had a badly lacerated scalp, concussion of the brain and a possible skull fracture.

Petersen was walking near the Mountain View Hotel, about a quarter of a mile from the city limits, when he was struck by a car driven by Lanigan, which was also proceeding north. Authorities Investigate.

The sheriff's office and troopers were notified and Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg, Brown and McCullough and Sergeant Cunningham and Trooper Keefe went at once to the scene of the accident. When the officers arrived they found Petersen lying face down on the shoulder of the road. He was taken to the Kingston Hospital in a Conner's ambulance, which had been summoned.

Lanigan told the officers that he did not see the man walking ahead of him until he was almost upon him. He swerved his car to the left, but was unable to avoid striking Petersen. Damaged fenders on the right side of Lanigan's car and a broken door handle showed where the car had struck Petersen and thrown him off to the side of the road.

No Charges Preferred.

No charges were preferred against Lanigan, who is a gate tender at the Flatbush avenue railroad crossing. He was questioned at the sheriff's office, following the accident. Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg said that the case was still open, however, pending further investigation.

Returns to Albany

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21 (AP)—New York's Court of Appeals returned to Albany today to hear legal attacks on Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia's 1938 New York city budget, twice rejected by lower courts. Cutting approximately $311,000 from the 1937 budget, the proposed financial plan for the nation's largest city is the object of attacks by metropolitan Democrats who claim it would "needlessly eliminate" 65 job-holders. Decried in Supreme Court and by a unanimous ruling of the appellate division declaring that he had no power to write it, LaGuardia brought the case to the state's highest tribunal as a final resort.

Lit'l Danger Less.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 21 (AP)—The Mississippi river rapidly gained the water of Arkansas tributaries today to reduce hourly the danger of a major flood in this state. Other sections of the south felt or expected the chilly breath of winter. New Orleans had a light frost. Temperatures dropped near the freezing mark at Birmingham and Atlanta. The Red Cross estimated that between 2,000 and 3,000 persons had been driven from their homes by overflowing waters of the Arkansas, White, Chaco and Ouachita rivers.

Bridge For Democracy.

Buenos Aires, Feb. 21 (AP)—President Robert O. Ortiz was pledged to maintain democracy today as he started his six-year term as chief executive of Argentina. "As a candidate I ratified my faith in democracy," he declared yesterday in an inaugural speech to congress. "That implied a solemn guarantee to respect liberty and liberties of the constitution." Ortiz warned his countrymen against international political entanglements, saying parties now are international and not national.

Phantom Sought By Local Police Still at Large

The phantom, who for several weeks has made life one scare after another for the young girls and women of the city, is still at large, although the police are hunting diligently for him. The phantom is now making his appearance in the Ninth, Eighth and Seventh wards. It is his custom to suddenly step out from doorways when a young girl passes on the sidewalk.

So fearful has been the scare imparted to young girls that several who live in the vicinity of Spring street and the members of the Y. W. C. A. have discontinued their attendance at the Y. W. until the phantom is laid by the heels by the police.

It is now only a question of time when the phantom is caught for the police. It is said, believe they know who the degenerate is and expect to arrest him.

A number of complaints of the activities of the man have been made to police headquarters by young women who have been chased by him.

Until the phantom is caught parents would be wise in keeping their daughters in the house as soon as it grows dark unless they are accompanied by a male escort.

General Electric Agreement

New York, Feb. 21 (AP)—A bargaining agreement covering half the General Electric Company's 60,000 workers—the first to be approved by the corporation with any labor union—was before the locals of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America today for ratification.

Ending a year of negotiation, the company and the CIO union announced in a joint statement the agreement for workers in General Electric plants at Schenectady, N. Y., Lynn and West Lynn, Mass., Bridgeport, Conn., Fort Wayne, Ind., and New Kensington, Pa.

New Highway Will Run Over Different Alignment—Plan Taking of Property

Maps for the reconstruction of route 9-W between Milton and Marlborough have been received by the clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Fred Stang, and the board will be asked to secure rights of way for this route which will be under construction this year. The new route will replace the narrow and crooked stretch of two strip concrete which now exists over this section. An inspection of the maps shows the route will run over practically a new alignment to the west of the present route and with the exception of small strips of land at the north and southern junctions with the present route practically all of the route will require new rights of way.

In all probabilities the contract for the grading of the strip will be let this year but the laying of pavement will not be undertaken until next year. Building of the route will not interfere with traffic since the route is over a new alignment.

To Hear Claims Soon

County Attorney Roscoe V. Elsworth in compliance with the request of the State Department of Highways will take immediate steps toward complying with the request for the acquiring of rights of way. A commission will undoubtedly be asked to hear damage claims arising out of the taking of lands for the route.

While the route has been designated by the State Department under the numbers, Milton-Marlborough S. H. No. 3114 and Lloyd Town Line-Milton S. H. No. 5001, the contract will be let as one contract since the route is comparatively short.

Under the plans the new alignment will leave the present three strip concrete highway on the northerly end between Young's Garage and the present end of the three strip pavement and at a point near the Milton-Ardonia road intersection at the James

Leaders at Albany To Pass Lehman Taxation Program

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21 (AP)—Legislative leaders tabbed Democratic Governor Lehman's budget-financing tax program today for early approval despite differences over some of its phases.

Leaders at Albany of the chief executive's tax program within a fortnight, as the Democratic senate's finance committee prepared to report it for a possible vote this week. The Republican-controlled assembly is scheduled to act on the bills next week.

Although passage of the entire program for financing the recently adopted $355,301,615 state budget is predicted, assembly Republicans are expected to make it the sounding board for their own taxation views.

Abbot Low Moffat, Republican chairman of the assembly ways and means committee, is sponsoring a bill calling for outright repeal of the capital gains and loss tax. The governor, on the other hand urged "modification" of the levy. Both proposals will be considered at a public hearing before the assembly taxation committee on March 1.

Republican Assemblyman Harold B. Ehrlich, Erie county, has said he would oppose strongly re-enactment of the emergency fourth cent of gasoline tax, continuance of which along with other temporary levies has been proposed by the governor.

At the same time, Republicans are expected to press for approval of a proposed constitutional amendment, which would segregate revenue from the first three cents-a-gallon of gas tax and all motor vehicle registration fees in a separate fund for highway construction.

Meantime the assembly prepared to hear public opinion on two other controversial proposals. Its judiciary committee will hold a hearing tomorrow on the bills of Democratic Senator Philip M. Kleinfeld, New York city, which would abolish so-called "blue ribbon" juries in New York, Kings, Queens, Richmond and Westchester counties.

Eden Scores Prime Minister As Britain Plans Talks With Italy; Europe Is Facing Jitters

Appraisal of Momentous Speech Leaves Doubt in Minds of Every European Capital — Warns German Neighbors.

FEARS IN PRAGUE

Czechoslovakia Filled with Anxiety as Hitler Casts Eyes in That Direction.

Berlin, Feb. 21 (AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler gave Europe's uneasy capitals no hint today of his next move as leader of a rearming Germany he declared was "entitled to equal rights" with other powers.

His momentous Reichstag speech yesterday demanding return of colonies Germany held before the world war and threatening possible armed force to protect German minorities on the Reich's borders failed to give the answer.

Europe's burning question, "What will Hitler do next?" resounded in foreign capitals with undiminished menace.

Anxiety grew in Prague, where Hitler's indirect reference to German minorities in Czechoslovakia was resented as challenging the sovereignty of that state, the home of some 2,000,000 pro-Nazi Germans.

In his three-hour Reichstag address, Dr. Fuehrer touched pointedly on most phases of the Reich's foreign policy.

He warned bordering nations with German minorities to quit "inflicting sorrow" on their subjects of German blood at the risk of possible conflict with his armed forces.

He informed Great Britain that she could have peace with the Reich by turning over colonies she gained from Germany by world war victory.

Gives No Pledge

He hailed Germany's new co-operation with Austria but gave no pledge to preserve the independence of that former Hapsburg country in which Nazism took sweeping strides last week.

He sided with insurgents in the Spanish civil war and with Japan in her war against "Bolshevism in China," and announced German recognition of Manchoukuo, Japan's great puppet state on the Asiatic mainland.

Germany, he announced, "does not even dream" of rejoining the League of Nations.

His audience, which included diplomatic representatives of virtually all the world, heard him declare that German industry is ready for "a rearmament program such as has never been seen before."

"Eighteen years ago," he said, "I vowed I would fight the Versailles Treaty and set up a people's army. During the last five years I have succeeded in doing both."

His failure to mention any assurance on the independence of Austria or add new details of the Austrian-German understanding was a major cause of European anxiety.

His statement that the agreement had liquidated an "unendurable situation" which was threatening to precipitate a "grievous catastrophe" was interpreted by some as a plain hint to Czechoslovakia to get right with Hitler before it is too late.

Eden Resignation

The resignation of Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of Great Britain, coming so quickly after Hitler's speech, only increased the uncertainty of those who had expected Der Fuehrer to make a conciliatory gesture toward England.

To many Nazis, however, Eden's resignation seemed to be another Hitler triumph and an indication that England was ready to get down to brass tacks with Germany—even at the cost of colonial concessions and at the price of resignation of a foreign secretary opposing such a deal.

Such optimists saw a far-reaching British, Italian, German and French agreement just around the corner.

Any such four power agreement, they were convinced, would bring colonies for Germany. Hitler plainly indicated in his speech that there could be no real, permanent understanding with Britain and France without colonial concessions.

Hitler Demands Return of Colonies

Chancellor Adolf Hitler is shown in this radiophoto transmitted from London addressing the Reichstag in a tenets-awaited speech that emphasized his firm control of German military might. "Iron and steel will speak," he shouted, "if ever international agitation against Germany manages to upset European peace." Behind Der Fuehrer sits portly Hermann Goerring, number two man of the Reich.

Carol Offers New Anti-Lynch Bill Document Giving Shelves To Take Him More Power Up Appropriations

Bucharest, Feb. 21 (AP)—King Carol today offered Rumania a new constitution of 109 articles which would give him greatly increased powers.

Under the proposal, the king would appoint half the senate and exercise veto power over all legislation. Other leading provisions would declare all Rumanians equal, without racial distinction, and grant religious freedom with the orthodox Rumanian church recognized as the state religion.

Several of the constitution's proposals were aimed at clipping the wings of Corneliu Zelea Codreanu, whose fascist Iron Guard has grown intensely authoritarian.

The country is to vote on the new constitution Thursday, after considering it only three days.

Adoption of the new constitution was regarded as a foregone conclusion. Members of the three commission were instructed to hold nation-wide mass meetings to explain its proposals, after which the voting will be by acclamation.

Most important provision of the document was:

Heading the government would be the king and his ministers.

Two Chambers

Parliament would consist of two chambers, a House of Deputies and a Senate. Deputies would be elected for six years according to membership in three guilds: Farmer-Labor, Commerce and Industry.

Shanghai, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Japanese were repulsed today in an attempt to cross the mighty Yellow river just north of Kailash, important city on the Lung-hai railway line in northern Honan Province.

Washington, Feb. 21 (AP)—The senate shelved the anti-lynching bill today to take up the $250,000,000 emergency relief appropriation measure.

The action, taken on a motion by Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky, ended a filibuster which had consumed 29 days of this session.

Juliant southerners who had fought the measure said they regarded the senate's action as assurance that the bill would not be brought up again this session.

Before the vote proponents of the bill, headed by Senator Wagner (D-N.Y.), had sought unanimity to amend the motion so as to provide later consideration of the bill.

The relief measure previously passed by the house, is designed to finance a WPA rolls to a total of 2,500,000 persons.

In a long that the anti-lynching bill he had made, Barkley explained that there appeared to him to be no chance of obtaining unanimity to limit the anti-lynching debate and said he had done "all I could" to get a vote on it.

He noted, also, that two motions to invoke cloture, limiting each senator's argument to one hour, had been defeated.

The vote on laying the bill aside was 58 to 22.

Chamberlain Defends His Government Against Tirade of Former Foreign Minister — To Start Talks Immediately.

EDEN ACCUSES

Says He Resigned Because Government Failed to Stand Fast in Face of Threats.

By The Associated Press

Anthony Eden delivered a bitter valdictory today, and the British House of Commons listened breathlessly and watched and wondered with the rest of the world at the new choosing of sides in European diplomacy.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, Eden's successful opponent in conflict over direction of up the outgoing foreign secretary's lightning farewell with an announcement that he had agreed to start immediate negotiations of a new friendship with Italy.

Chamberlain described his objective as "general appeasement throughout Europe."

To a bluff Italy's desire for friendship, the austere conservative prime minister told the turbulent parliament would strain British Italian relations to the point "at which ultimately war between us might become inevitable."

Eden rang out from the noisy opposition but Chamberlain spoke for a full hour, insisting he had informed Premier Mussolini's envoy there could be no settlement without a solution of the Spanish problem and that any agreement would have to be submitted to the League of Nations.

Tells Why He Quit

Eden had told the house that he had quit as foreign secretary rather than be forced to deal with an Italy that had conducted anti-British propaganda and glorified in Italy for the insurgents in the Spanish civil war.

Of friendship with Italy, he cried:

"Agreements that are worthwhile are never made on the basis of threats."

"This was a time, he said, when 'strong political convictions must override all other considerations.'"

Already woven into this changing pattern of European relations was Adolf Hitler's day-and-night defiance of collective security as a basis of European peace.

Chamberlain declared that for Britain to rebuff Italy's desires for such conversations would bring relations to a point "at which ultimately war between us might become inevitable."

The prime minister accused Eden, whom critics charged he had sacrificed to satisfy Europe's dictates, of being "unfair" in implying that he (Chamberlain) had succumbed to Italian "now or never" threats.

Speaks for Hour

Frequently interrupted by jeers from noisy opposition members, who cheered Eden's defense of his resignation last night, Chamberlain spoke for a solid hour.

He insisted he had informed the Italian Ambassador, Count Dino Grandi, there could be no settlement without a solution of the Spanish problem and that any Anglo-Italian agreement would be submitted to the League of Nations.

Denying that there was any question at this stage of what the terms of an Anglo-Italian agreement would be, Chamberlain went on:

"What we are seeking to do is to get general appeasement throughout Europe which will give us peace."

"The peace of Europe must depend on the attitude of four major powers—Germany, Italy, France and ourselves."

Rebels Gain at Teruel

Hendaye, France, Feb. 21 (AP)—Fighting raged in the heart of Teruel today and government defenders were reported surrendering in small groups as insurgent assault forces battled to regain full possession of the strategic South Aragon city.

While the desperate government garrison was being pounded into submission, another insurgent force launched a new offensive against the Sagunto highway, advancing five miles southeast of Teruel. It appeared that General Francisco Franco's army intended driving as far as possible toward the Mediterranean.

A destructive artillery and airplane bombardment preceded this advance. Insurgent troops, following up the barrage, were said to have penetrated government lines and forced government troops to retreat on both sides of the important road, which leads to the sea.

Inside Teruel, the government commander sent the insurgents a request that the remainder of the war-torn city's civilian population be evacuated.

The insurgent general staff countered with a demand for surrender of the entire garrison.

Teruel was in flames in the fighting zone and explosions of underground mines reverberated through the city.

Chinese Repulse Foe

Shanghai, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Japanese continued to harass Chinese communications behind the lines. On the southern front near the Tientsin-Pukow railway mobile Chinese units occupied Changchun, within 50 miles of Nanking.

A Chinese dispatch said the Japanese lost three planes on bombing raids.

Chinese authorities said Major General Nakajima and 40 other Japanese officers and soldiers were ambushed and killed by Chinese mobile troops near Liohng-shan, on the northern Tientsin-Pukow railway front.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek ordered governors of Yunnan, Szechwan, Kweichow, Shensi and Kansu provinces to convert the present opium fields into farmlands and enforce opium suppression laws.

Big Ticket Sale For Charity Ball

Public response to the appeal of Kingston Council, No. 275, Knights of Columbus, to date has been most generous, and the advance sale of tickets to the 18th annual charity ball, to be held in the Kingston Municipal Auditorium next Friday evening, gives every assurance that this year's effort to raise funds for non-sectarian charity purposes will be crowned with success.

Arrangements have been completed for the appearance of Frank Novak and his orchestra, which should prove to be one of the finest musical aggregations ever heard in this vicinity. Voting for the honors with Frank Novak will be an outstanding and favorite local combination, Steuding's "Serenade in Swingtime", an orchestra which has achieved a high reputation throughout the Hudson Valley. With two such excellent purveyors of rhythm and tempo, the charity ball is assured of success, at least in the terpsichorean sense.

The entertainment committee has procured the services of Alfred Skea of New York City to present the smart vaudeville program. Among the various acts will be the "McNally Sisters", four beautiful girls reputed for their singing and dancing act as well as their pulchritude. This act comes direct from the smart Gold Room of the Drake Hotel in Chicago where it played a long and successful engagement. Guests at the French Casino in New York City were recently reduced to a state of helplessness from laughter induced by the two French sailors known as "Paul Lavarre and Company" and the same results are anticipated when their brand of comedy is offered the guests Friday night.

The best that is new in modern dance steps will be exhibited by Jay and Catherine Joy, a youthful brother and sister dance team. These accomplished exponents of the dance will prove a big hit with the younger element since their execution of the shag and Big Apple steps have been widely acclaimed.

The high class standard of the entertainment will be maintained and interspersed with the dancing throughout the evening by reason of the fact that Novak's artists include a number of excellent singers who time to time will present their own arrangement of popular melodies.

YOUR PARTY ONE GRAND GOOD TIME WITH LIVELY STUNTS LIKE THESE

Play This New Kind of Treasure Hunt

You think your party may fall flat? It can't and it won't—if you play this fascinating new kind of treasure hunt—Safari.

The treasure hunt game hunt for is "big game"—jungle animals you've cut out of picture crepe paper or cheap picture books, pasted on cardboard and hidden cleverly around the house.

With a "whoop" the crowd goes after them—in two competing teams—each member armed to the teeth with toy guns. When a beast is tracked to its lair (behind the piano, perhaps) what a deafening volley of rifle fire you hear.

And now—the big moment. The expeditions return, bearing the kill which determines their scores. The elephant rates ten, the giraffe nine, the tiger eight—and so on down to the mouse, whose sissy captors get only one. The team which totals the largest score gets a prize—a sports handkerchief for each member.

You must have a breathing spell? Of course, but make it amusing with a mystifying trick. Put a dime on the palm of your hand, hold it out flat and tell the crowd that whoever dislodges the dime with a small brush can keep it. Brushing must be done away from you and no fair poking. Funny—but you won't lose your dime.

What to do if the crowd's not well acquainted? Give each guest a card bearing the name of a famous lover and tell everybody to look for his other half. Surely the ice melts when Romeo finds Juliet and Cleopatra meets Antony.

Easy, you see, to have every party a hit when you have our 40-page booklet, GAMES FOR GOOD PARTIES, to dip into for team games, fortune games, ice breakers, holiday stunts, magic tricks.

Send 15c for our booklet, GAMES FOR GOOD PARTIES, to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Institute, 199 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

It's high time to turn your needle to soft, sheer dresses and here's one, from Pattern 9640, which is a triumphant example of Marian Martin's designing skill. See the beautiful sweep of the yoke and front panel . . . these are new lines at their best and most flattering. Fullness in the bodice and in the sleeves (whether flared or pulled) creates soft lines that are particularly lovely when the truck is made up in chiffon voile. But no matter what fabric you choose, silk, cotton or synthetic, either printed or plain, the beautiful lines of the gored skirt will be in the "swing" of fashion. Complete Marian Martin Diagrammed Sew Chart is included.

Pattern 9640 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards 33 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps across preferred for L. E. MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to state plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to Kingston Daily Freeman, Pattern Department, 222 W. 15th Street, New York, N. Y.

The use of red copper oxide as a spray for greenhouse seedlings to prevent damping-off, stem cankers, and leaf diseases in place of Bordeaux mixture or copperlime dust as previously recommended, seems to be supported by evidence accumulated in tests made by plant disease specialists at the State Experimental Station at Geneva.

The Department of Agriculture plans to divert surplus hops into accumulated in tests made by fertilizer and much.

EDEN RESIGNS FOREIGN SECRETARYSHIP

In a dramatic break with Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain on foreign policy, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden resigned from the British cabinet, taking with him the principal foreign undersecretary, Viscount Cranborne. Eden is shown in this radiophoto transmitted from London being greeted by a throng outside No. 10 Downing street where he attended a cabinet meeting to discuss the speech of Adolf Hitler concerning German colonies now held by Britain.

Storm Takes One Life Near Buffalo

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21 (AP)—One person was dead today as a direct result of winter's snowy return to upstate New York.

After several weeks of varied rising temperatures and a snowless landscape, a blinding snow storm lashed across the state yesterday bringing death to Robert J. Miller, 28, of Bergen.

Blinded by the driving snow, Miller was killed when his automobile careened off the Batavia-Buffalo road and overturned.

Workers struggled to keep highways open throughout virtually the entire upstate area as snowfalls of from four to eight inches were reported.

A London studio is making pictures "with a moral" intended for showing in English churches wired for talkies.

Common Sense About Constipation

If you knew that your constipation was caused by something left out of your food, wouldn't it be just common sense to put that something back?

Your trouble may be caused by nothing more than this. For the most common kind of constipation is due to lack of "bulk" in the bowels—you need some food that passes on through the stomach without being digested. Kellogg's All-Bran supplies this. It gives the bowels the bulky mass they need to work properly. And All-Bran also gives them the intestinal tonic, Vitamin B, which helps restore their tone.

Eat All-Bran as a cereal or baked in muffins. But however you eat it, be sure you get some every day. And drink plenty of water. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Raw Throat? Here's Quick Action!

Kill the cold germs that attack your throat and cause miserable colds. At the first sign of "raw" throat, gargle with Zonite.

Zonite is 3 times more active, by standard laboratory tests, than any other popular non-poisonous antiseptic. Kills all kinds of cold germs—of course! And Zonite soothes your throat.

Get Zonite at once. Gargle immediately—1 teaspoon Zonite to half glass water. Kill cold germs before they spread UP into sinuses or DOWN into bronchial tubes. You'll feel relief after the first gargle with Zonite.

DESIGNERS AND CONSULTANTS

IS AIR CONDITIONING FOR COMFORT A NEW ART?

No, not by any means. Air has been conditioned to a more or less degree since the time when Cleopatra ruled Egypt.

What are the Major Principles of Air and Comfort Conditioning?

Ventilation, proper controlling and gentle movement of clean air. The heating apparatus and refrigeration equipment are only supplementary items used in their respective seasons. Nor does refrigeration necessarily mean electric or steam-driven apparatus. The Supreme Creator gave to many of us Natural Refrigeration in the form of Cold Water (50 degrees or lower) from driven wells.

Have You Changed the Replaceable Filter Units in Your Air Conditioner?

Our Sales Department (The Beacon Utilities Sales Division) in charge of Mr. Larry Collier is selling from our retail stock Arco Replaceable Filter Units which operate at much greater efficiency than either the spun glass or steel wool types. Write or wire us for prices.

This is the second in a series of talks intended to promote a better understanding of Air Conditioning. Reprints of this advertisement, as well as the advice of our engineers concerning proper Air Conditioning for your home, office or factory may be obtained free by writing us at the above address.

ST. MARY'S CHOIR AT 8 O'C. TONIGHT

At the regular meeting of Kingston Council, No. 275, Knights of Columbus, an octet from the choir of St. Mary's will render popular numbers as the feature of this evening's entertainment program.

The choir has been preparing for this occasion for some time and their director, Ted Riccobono, promises everything in readiness for the presentation.

Grand Knight Joseph J. Murphy announced today that aside from the entertainment, a special business of exceptional importance to the entire membership will be taken up tonight.

Lecturer Jose A. Alvarez feels that in presenting the choir from St. Mary's he is offering a group that is sure to please the large number of Knights who will be present. Recently at St. Mary's Holy Name breakfast, the choir made such a decided hit with the audience that they were called upon for several encores.

As usual refreshments will climax the evening.

OUSTED

Authoritative foreign sources said the General Iwano Matsui (above) has been replaced as commander of Japanese forces in Central China; his successor is said to be General Shunroku Hata. The change was the result of Japan's desire to improve relations with foreign powers, to loss of prestige coming from breaches of discipline and to dissatisfaction with the slow progress of the campaign in Central China.

"ARE CAMELS REALLY DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?"... a question of interest to every smoker

"I've never been very fussy about cigarettes myself. Do you think that Camels are really as different as some people say, Bill?"

"You bet they are different, John! A fellow in any work as hard as selling has to figure a lot of angles on his smoking, such as how it agrees with him. And just notice how many salesmen smoke Camels. I changed to Camels—smoked 'em steadily—and I found a distinct difference in the way I enjoyed all-day smoking. Camels agree with me!"

A FRIEND DROPS IN to see how Bill is coming with his model racing sloop. Daly passes the Camels and answers a natural question about smoking. "That all cigarettes are alike talk doesn't square with my experience. Believe me, steady smoking is the test that shows Camels in a class by themselves."

MARITA'S PLANNING a grand feed. "We enjoy entertaining," Marita says. "I like to have plenty of Camels at the table. Camels certainly help to cheer up one's digestion."

ON WEEK-ENDS, Bill goes in for photography. Week days he "pounds the streets." "I get pretty tired," he says, "but when energy fails I get a quick 'lift' with a Camel."

... When H. W. DALY, 34, rayon salesman, says "Yes, Camels are really different," millions of other smokers stand ready to back him up. And that explains why Camels are preferred by the largest body of smokers ever known.

A KISS FROM MARITA (Mrs. Daly) and Bill is off to catch the 7:55 on which he commutes to his job in the city. The Dalys agree about most things. Among them, Camels. Mrs. Daly smoked them first, soon noticed a difference. "Now we find that Camels agree better with both of us," she says.

NEW IDEAS

A new shell made in Germany is said to melt steel like snow. "S. S. Soap," a cleaner containing sand, is being made in Europe. Sponge rubber is being used like cement in tree surgery to fill cavities. Taxes in Lisbon, Portugal, are required by a new law to take a weekly day of rest. A dog whistle human neighbors cannot hear pitches the tone to an ultra short range. The new "glass train" of a railway in England has 100,000 small mirrors on the exterior panels of the coaches.

Stencils which outline the desired Cupid's bow and guide the lipstick when no mirror is available, have appeared in London. The passing of electricity through an extremely thin glass membrane is described. This produces a new glass weather proof or insulator. The next meeting will be held on...

IT'S ODD But It's Science

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

New York—Instead of shearing sheep, Russian scientists give them a dose of medicine that makes them moult.

The Russians do not think this discovery will take the place of shearing. But they predict a cunning way to outfit nature.

This concerns the sheep with "mixed" wools. These have coarse and fine hairs mixed. The mixed wool varieties are not rated high. The new wool medicine, thallium, will select the fine hairs moult, while the coarse stick to the sheep. After the fine hair is out, the sheep still has the coarse stuff as a fairly valuable by-product.

The selection is due to a difference in roots of sheep's wool. Thallium weakens the roots so that hair falls out. But it takes less thallium to weaken a fine hair root than a coarse one.

The discovery is reported in Nature by N. A. Iljin, of the Wool Laboratory, Moscow. There is a drawback. Thallium sometimes makes the sheep sick.

Thallium has been tried in the United States for making hair grow on partly bald heads. Its value is supposed to lie in its control over the nerves which monitor hair roots.

Trial and Grand Juries Drawn

A trial and grand jury was drawn Saturday for attendance at the March term of Supreme Court, which will be convened at the court house on Monday, March 7, at 11 o'clock. Members of the grand jury, none of whom are women, are:

George Thornton, Spring Glen. Walter Webber, Lake Katrine. Philip H. Wilklow, Highland. Henry Winchell, Olive Bridge.

On the last panel of grand jurors drawn were names of several women but Supreme Court Justice Schrick, in line with Judge Smith of another department, ruled that women were in a preferred class and might exercise a right of exemption and therefore were not eligible to serve as grand jurors. Consequently he excused the women drawn on the grand jury list from service. This matter will undoubtedly go to the higher courts for a final determination as to the right of women to be selected.

There are three women on the trial panel. The following have been drawn for service:

At The Theatres
Broadway: "The Bad Man of Brimstone". Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has staged a turbulent spectacle of the old west in this really skillful story of a tough hombre who killed for the love of killing but who also had his moments of sympathy which also gave his guns time to cool off for the next engagement. It's a typical western yarn, a melodrama of violence and trigger-like action and Wallace Beery is brilliant in the starring assignment. The outdoor settings are spectacular and a fine supporting cast includes Virginia Bruce, Bruce Cabot and Dennis O'Keefe.

Kings: "The Kid Comes Back". This picture was made before the now famous "Kid Galahad", which lifted newcomer Wayne Morris to the ranks of stardom. It is now released because of the tremendous success of the other fight story and Barton MacLane, June Travis and Maxie Rosenbly are featured along with Mr. Morris in the supporting cast. The story has to do with the fight racket and the ring scenes are among the best ever photographed. This tale of a young pugilist and his rise and fall is spirited entertainment and it is the type of melodrama that should prove appealing to both young and old theatre goers.

Orpheum: "Fly Away Baby" and "The Great Gambini". Two entirely different films are offered at the Orpheum, the first a comedy that concerns a girl seeking romance over the globe and the second a mystery drama of a hypnotist that has plenty of exciting moments. Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane and Hugh O'Connell are featured in the first show while Akim Tamiroff and Marian Marsh are in the second.

HOLLYWOOD—Movie research departments, which bother themselves about the most insignificant details, generally keep hands off one vital film component: the movie kiss.

They made quite a fuss about the way Sigrid Gurie should react to Gary Cooper's Occidental kiss in "Marco Polo" but that was a Chinese exception. Miss Gurie as the Oriental princess, wasn't supposed ever to have been kissed that way before.

Ordinarily, the researchers don't specify how a kiss should be delivered and received for—even in period pictures. Directors and players, too, take it for granted that the kiss is timeless, that Helen of Troy, Cleopatra, Maid Marian of Robin Hood's time and Joan Crawford in her most modern roles should react the same way.

Michael Curtiz, directing kiss scenes between Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland in the "Robin Hood" picture, simply rehearsed them in their lines, placed them in a romantic setting, and left them to their own devices. DeMille did the same with Fredric March and Franciska Gaal in "The Buccaneer", and William Wyler made no hard-and-fast rules for the kissing scenes of Bette Davis and Henry Fonda in "Jezebel", period 1850.

the next engagement. It's a typical western yarn, a melodrama of violence and trigger-like action and Wallace Beery is brilliant in the starring assignment. The outdoor settings are spectacular and a fine supporting cast includes Virginia Bruce, Bruce Cabot and Dennis O'Keefe.

Kingston: "The Kid Comes Back." This picture was made before the now famous "Kid Gallahad", which lifted newcomer Wayne Morris to the ranks of stardom. It is now released because of the tremendous success of the other fight story and Barton MacLane, June Travis and Marie Rossington are featured along with Mr. Morris in the superb "quicker" that is a blend of comedy, tenacious, terror and be-
do with the fight racket and the wilderness. It's a mystery yarn
with all the trimmings including a young pugilist and his rise and fall is spirited entertainment and it is the type of melodrama that should prove appealing to both young and old theatre goers.

Orpheum: "Fly Away Baby" and "The Great Gambini". Two entirely different films are offered at the Orpheum, the first a comedy that concerns a girl seeking romance over the globe and the second a mystery drama of a hypnotist that has plenty of exciting moments. Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane and Hugh O'Connell are featured in the first show while Alvin Tamboff and Marian Marsh are in the second.

Tomorrow
Broadway: Same:
Kingston: "Sh-h-h! The Octopus" and "Texas Trail". Marcia Ralston, Hugh Herbert and Allen Jenkins are the main players in the first attraction, a Warner Brothers "quicker" that is a blend of comedy, tenacious, terror and be-
do with the fight racket and the wilderness. It's a mystery yarn
with all the trimmings including some exceptional lighting effects.
"Texas Trail" is an above average western tale with William Boyd starring. This Paramount picture is taken from a novel by Clarence
L. Mulford.

Orpheum: Same.

Colonials Bow to Reds, 27-28; DiCastro Boxes Here Tonight

Locals Lose Lead in Second Period, Then Game in 3rd Frame

RABIN GETS 15

Colonial Guard Tops Scores, All Reds Crash Boxscore—Jersey at Auditorium Wednesday Night.

COLONIALS HD. Ran. ....
Beginning their game with the Jersey Reds in whirlwind fashion Sunday, the Colonials held a 14-7 lead at the end of the first period, but were unable to stand the pace and lost to the Gas House Gang, 27-28.

The game was a heart-breaker to lose for Davis Ross, new Colonial manager, but he hopes to see his club slip down the first half of the American League Wednesday night when they come to the municipal auditorium.

In the second period, the Reds proceeded to melt the Kingston lead by scoring 13 points, and holding the Colonials to six markers, thus making the tally 20-all at the beginning of the third and closing stanza, one of the flashiest 15 minutes of basketball ever seen at Union City.

Jersey collected eight points in the finishing frame, and Kingston seven. Phil Rabin, with 15 points, was the leading marksmen of the contest, dumping in six fields and three fouls for the Colonials.

Stanton and Dabiller made seven and five, respectively. The scoring was pretty evenly distributed among the Jersey players, Anderson being the lowest.

Wednesday night the Reds visit the auditorium for the first game under the leadership of Dave Bass, the new manager handling the club for Jack Feye and Matt Herzog, successors to Frank Morawick, who turned his business affairs over to them on account of failing health.

Bass hopes to have Jack McGuirk, of the Celtics, with him for the game, to team up with Nip Kaplinsky, whom he signed last week.

Rosendale Firemen Victorious Over Kingston Pirates by 41-28

The Kingston Pirates found the Rosendale Firemen too much for them Saturday night at Firemen's Hall, Rosendale, losing to the smoke eaters by 41-28. Although the Pirates got away to an 8-2 lead in the first quarter, the fire ladders began tossing them in from all angles of the court to pile up a 21-12 lead at the half time marker. Bill Kopp and Dave Rask led the Firemen with 13 and 12 points respectively, while Lou Glenn made eight for the Pirates.

Friday night the Firemen will play Battery A quintet at the armory court in a return game. The Firemen hold a 39-21 win over the soldiers.

Louis and Mann Meet Wednesday

New York, Feb. 21 (AP).—Nathan Mann, who has been looked upon as a highly promising heavyweight for the last year or two, gets his chance Wednesday night to show what he can do against Champion Joe Louis.

The idea that the 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden is anything more than a tune-up for the Detroit Bomber seems to be confined almost entirely to the vicinity of Mann's home town, New Haven, Conn., and his training camp at Summit, N. J. At 15 rounds, it has to be a title bout, since the big boys can't arrange any overweight affairs, but the purpose of it all is to give Louis a chance to keep his punching sharp for his match with Max Schmeling in June.

The boxscore:

At 15 rounds, it has to be a little bout, but it is a little bout, and it is any even-weight affair, but, the way, and finished up by flooring the Marylander twice in the first round and once in the fourth. Both battlers weighed 117 1/2.

Thus, he regained the title from the same fighter who outpointed him in the "Carnival of Champions" at New York's Polo Grounds, September 19, 1934.

Kelly's Corner

DiCastro and Rome Boxing Team Here Tonight—Husta Would Refuse

By Joe Kelly

This is fight night at the municipal auditorium. Looking over the card topped by Ralph DiCastro vs. Tony Visco and Frankie Mirabile vs. Pinky Wheeler, we can say the show looks like a thriller.

If it holds up like the last two bills of scraps there'll be no klick. Sammy Silber's going a mile a minute with his Kingston club.

Carlisle Husta won't take that manager's job, so there's no use in signing petitions in his behalf.

He's anxious to see Kingston finish the season in a whirl of glory. If such be possible, and wishes Dave Bass a lot of luck for the 115-pound crown, the busy little Puerto Rican won't back last night by a decisive 15-round victory over Harry Jeffra, the ex-fight bag totter from Baltimore.

After winning a pre-fight decision over selection of the judges, Escobar went to work on Jeffra inside the ring, was in front all a minute with his Kingston club, the ex-fight bag totter from Baltimore.

Thus, he regained the title from the same fighter who outpointed him in the "Carnival of Champions" at New York's Polo Grounds last September.

Amateur Boxing Finals at the Hipp

New York, Feb. 21 (AP).—Amateur boxers representing 19 cities from upper New York state to lower Florida, open eliminations in the annual Daily News A. Golden Gloves tournament at the Hippodrome tonight.

Winners in tournaments sponsored by newspapers in the 19 cities, they go through the quarter-final bracket tonight, and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Semi-finals of the "tournament of champions" are listed for March 7 at Madison Square Garden, with the finals March 21, also at the Garden.

Newspapers sponsoring teams in New York state are the Binghampton Press, Buffalo Courier-Express, Rockville Center Nassau Review Star, Newburgh News and the New York Daily News.

Redskins Get George Karamatic

Philadelphia, Feb. 21 (AP).—Although marked by only one player trade, the National Professional Football League's week-end conference left its stamp on league rules today with the abolition of the temporary suspension system, limiting of post-season games and an increase in the number of players on a team's active list.

The Washington Redskins and the New York Giants completed the single player transaction with Washington gaining the rights to George Karamatic, fullback last year at Gonzaga University, in exchange for the rights to Nello Falashi, star quarterback for Santa Clara two years ago. Falashi coached at Santa Clara last fall.

Representatives of the 10 teams voted to increase from 25 to 30 the number of players a club may have on its active list.

Attractive Schedule of Games in City Basketball Loop Tuesday

The City Basketball League's Closed Division celebrates Washington's Birthday tomorrow night with a bang-up schedule of games at the auditorium. The schedule is as follows:

7:30—Hercules vs. Central Hudson.

8:30—Knights of Columbus vs. Fullers.

9:30—Jewish Youth Alliance vs. Forest.

The second half of the league, of which tomorrow's games are the third of a five-game series, has been full of upsets. The teams which were showing up best in the first round have fallen behind, while the cellar teams have been scoring all the wins.

The Forest team has shown the most spectacular comeback in the series, winning both games this half after going through the first two rounds of the league without a win. Following in their footsteps is the Knights of Columbus team, scoring wins in both games of the second half, after placing second from last in the first half.

Of the former favorites, Fullers and Hercules, it seems to have hit a bad slump. They'll have to show a big improvement in order to place near the top in the second half. Last week's games saw the Hercules capably bottle up the Hercules scores, particularly Niles, league scoring leader, with the result that the Powdermen came out with their third loss of the season.

Another surprising factor in the second half is the poor showing of the J. Y. A. After hitting a winning streak of seven straight games, and going through the second round of the league without a loss, the Hebrews have failed to click in the last two games, losing to both the Knights and Central Hudson teams.

Search for Briggs Old Man Winter Turns to New York Pays Return Call On Cabman's Tip

Highland, N. Y., Feb. 21 (AP)—The search for Ralph Briggs, 24, of Hyde Park, sought in connection with the $100,000 holdup of the Postmaster, N. Y. National Bank, turned today to New York city as a Poughkeepsie taxicab driver provided police with a new clue.

District Attorney Edward H. Best said the taxi driver, Joseph G. Watson, told him he had driven Briggs to New York city on the afternoon of February 16, several hours after two gunmen looted the bank.

The prosecutor quoted Watson as saying that Briggs warned him "to keep quiet or my friends will have a word with you."

Briggs previously had been implicated in the case by Edward G. O'Brien, Poughkeepsie postmaster, who is a prisoner in the Hudson County jail facing charges of conspiracy to kidnap.

Best said Watson told him that Briggs and O'Brien were together when he first saw them in Poughkeepsie. He drove O'Brien to his home and then drove to New York, the taxi driver was quoted as saying.

Orders to arrest Briggs "on sight" were given last week by state police.

Europe Awaits Hitler's Move

to build friendship with all nations except Russia.

He said he did not object if potential enemies found comfort in reports that his drastic reorganization of the army and government February 4 had weakened both, but warned such enemies to consider carefully before they put their conclusions to a test of arms.

"Iron and steel will speak," he shouted, if international agitation against Germany upsets European peace.

It was noted that in reiterating his assurance that Germany, with the Saar Basin returned, has no territorial demands against France, Hitler significantly added the qualifying phrase, "in Europe."

With his statement that "there will be an increasing demand" for colonies, Hitler asserted that offers of international loans would not suffice. He made clear that he had no territorial designs on Spain or Eastern Asia.

Unmentioned in his address was the question of what he would do next with respect to the church. He failed to announce that any conciliatory move was in the offing.

The cars sideswiped about two miles north of Highland village. Sergeant Hulse, of the Highland state police outpost, made an initial investigation. The girl was treated by Dr. Lockwood of Highland for abrasions of the arm and leg.
